

Bell Pensioners' Group
Together, Protecting our Pensions and Benefits

The Bell Pensioners' Group is an association of pensioners and employees from Bell and its affiliates

History

The Bell Pensioners' Group (BPG) is a not-for-profit organization incorporated in 1995. It advocates on behalf of the more than 30,000 retirees of Bell and their beneficiaries. Its activities are financed solely from membership dues and staffed by pensioner volunteers.

The BPG is a founding member of the Canadian Federation of Pensioners, a growing network of pensioner groups, that together represent over 250,000 retired individuals across Canada.

Mandate

The primary objective of the Bell Pensioners' Group is to protect the interests of Bell Canada pensioners in maintaining their DEFINED BENEFIT pensions and benefits. This is accomplished through:

- Advocating to government for improved pension legislation and regulation,
- Ongoing dialogue and formal meetings with Bell,
- Advocating within the stakeholder community,
- Supporting pensioners' representatives on the Bell corporate Pension Information Committee (PIC).

Mission

The mission of the BPG is "to be recognized by Bell, Bell pensioners, government agencies and the stakeholder community as an effective and influential advocate for our members".

Accomplishments

- BPG actively participates in all major forums discussing pension reform across Canada. We are particularly involved with the federal government because that is the level of government that regulates your pension and have been successful in lobbying for Bill C-228 which was enacted in 2024, which prioritizes pension plan members in a corporate insolvency.
- Based on our numerous representations, we have been invited by the federal government to present our recommendations, and we are considered to be an expert stakeholder.
- We keep our members informed via meetings, newsletters and our website, about key issues such as the status of Bell's pension plan and pension reform; we also provide tips and advice on benefits.
- To ensure the positions we take are sound and compelling, we retain the services of outside experts, as required, including legal, actuarial and government relations.
- We consult with Bell on an ongoing basis about the operation of the pension and benefits administration.
- We assist our members in addressing individual pension or benefit problems they could not resolve themselves.

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN

Over the years, BPG has become a credible and recognized organization, advocating for the rights of pensioners. Our strength comes from our numbers and our ability to present our views and recommendations in a professional manner.

The amendments made by the federal government to the current pension rules correspond closely, in many respects, to the recommendations put forward by BPG.
